Abstract:	The age of Justinian I was marked by all-embracing attempts at re-organization of the late Roman Empire. These attempts virtually touched upon all walks of life, and had impacts on geographically large area from the western Mediterranean to the Near East. The late Roman Dalmatia and Pannonia were also affected by Justinian's efforts. The proposed project will be focused on the study of different aspects of historical processes in Dalmatia and southern Pannonia during the Justinianic age.
